Final Report of Certificate Course in Water Analysis

A majority of the ~~people~~ students completed the course 45 days. The water quality management in India is performed under the provision of Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974. The basic objective of this Act is to maintain and restore the wholesomeness of national aquatic resources by prevention and control of pollution. The Act prescribes various functions for the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB).

Poor water quality has its most direct impact on aquatic wildlife, particularly fish, bugs and plants. Excess nutrients, sediment, lead salt, and other contaminants can reduce the variety and hardness of organisms living in the states' waters.

Hence, Department of Chemistry has decided to introduce Certificate course in Water Analysis to enhance proficiency and practical knowledge in Water Chemistry with the noble intention of imparting necessary knowledge on water analysis and quality parameters of water to the outgoing students. The course started on 02/11/2022 and completed on 18/12/2022. The certificate course was conducted for a period of 45 days with 30 hours of theory and 15 hours of practical from 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm off the college hours.

Final Report of Certificate course in COSMETICS

Good quality management begins with sourcing reliable ingredients and materials from trusted suppliers, testing those ingredients to ensure their safety, adhering to strict manufacturing and storage processes, documenting all procedures thoroughly, and monitoring product quality throughout its lifespan.

Quality management processes help companies to ensure that their products meet all safety and quality standards, as well as customer expectations. Quality management processes in the cosmetics industry should include both preventative and corrective measures, such as identifying potential hazards related to the production process, training personnel on the proper handling of ingredients, testing for product consistency and stability, verifying labeling accuracy, and proper packaging practices.

The cosmetics industry has a responsibility to provide customers with safe and effective products. Quality management is essential for ensuring this goal is achieved.

Good quality control practices must be implemented throughout the production process, from raw material sourcing to packaging and labeling. This includes testing ingredients for safety, conducting microbial testing prior to the release of any product, and establishing appropriate shelf life limits for all cosmetic items.

Additionally, manufacturers should ensure that their suppliers meet stringent standards in order to guarantee the highest quality final product.

Hence , Department of chemistry has decided to introduce certificate course in COSMETICS to enhance proficiency and practical knowledge in COSMETICS ,with the humble intention of imparting necessary knowledge in COSMETICS and quality parameters of COSMETICS to the outgoing students .The certificate course was conducted for a period of 40 days with 30 hrs of theory and 15 hrs of practicals from 4.00 PM to 5.00 PM after the college hours.
